

I tend to not really use my meal plan because it is a long walk from Campus Village to Russell House. A lot of the times, it's not because I don't want to make the walk from one to the other, it's because I am busy a lot of the time doing homework. I spend most of my week trying to do homework for class and I don't really give myself many breaks which leads to me ordering food and having it delivered, costing me money I should be saving when I can just use my meal plan. I dislike a lot of food, so going to the dining hall isn't really an option for me because I don't want to waste food and get food that I won't eat. I want to try and walk campus more and find places to get food that I like that aligns with my meal plan to stop spending so much money on fast food (which isn't always healthy).
